Harvest Home
Painted in DecoArt Traditions on a 12" x 12" stretched canvas.
An exercise in visual texture
using palette knife scraping, drybrushing and glazed colors. Hair dryers needed.

Raised Stencil Plate
Still one of my most popular seminar pieces.
Painted in Jo Sonja paint on a 16" diameter wood plate.
Textured background;
raised stencil design;
Hair dryers needed.
An additional $6.00 charge
per student for stencil.

Lilacs

Painted on a 16x20 canvas using Jo Sonja paints. The background emphasizes abstract, textured shapes while the focal design is painted loosely to create an impressionistic feel.

Winter Barn

Painted on an 11 x 18 MDF board from Coyote Woodcrafts using Jo Sonja paints. The background sky and landforms are painted with a foam roller.

Always Reach Higher

Painted on an 8" x 16" canvas using DecoArt Traditions. This piece features a wippled background with additional layers and glazes to build the background texture. The bird is painted with a series of vertical strokes. Uses an unusual color palette of green, magenta, orange and white.

Pear Panel
Painted with Jo Sonja paint on a 16x20" stretched canvas.
Multiple layers of texture.
Hair dryers needed.
Additional $6.00 cost per student for the stencil.

Crackled Flower Pot
Jo Sonja colors with two different crackled effects and a quick and easy floral technique.

Pen with Ink Bottle

A recent project that uses decoupage, crackle, transfer, color lifting, stencil making and just some plain old regular painting to create an old-fashioned look to a design painted in a reduced palette of colors.

Jo Sonja paints are used and hair dryers are necessary.

Painted on a wood insert for a metal tray.
